	Please provide other relevant information (indicator values, methodology, calculations and formulas, data sources, information set used for denominators) in a separate Excel file.
4.2 Methodology and indicators used for designation of the O-SII (Article 131.3)	Please provide information on: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> whether you followed the EBA guidelines on the assessment of O-SIIs; The EBA guidelines were fully followed when identifying O-SIIs. which threshold score has been set to identify O-SIIs; In the first step the threshold was set to 350 basis points. Similarly in the second step the threshold is 350 basis points. (EBA/GL/2014/10) whether relevant entities with relative total assets not in excess of 0.02% have been excluded from the identification process; All banks as well as branches have been included in the calculations. the names and scores of all relevant entities not excluded from the identification process (could be sent in a separate Excel file, see 4.1); whether non-bank institutions have been included in the calculations. Non-bank institutions have not been included in the calculation.
4.3 Supervisory judgement	Have any of the institutions listed in 2.1 been identified by applying supervisory judgement as laid down in EBA guidelines on the assessment of O-SIIs? If yes, please list the respective institutions and provide information on: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> which of the optional indicators have been used to justify the supervisory assessment decisions, if any, and what the scores were; why these optional indicators are relevant for the Member State; why the bank is systemically important in terms of those particular optional indicators. All 5 O-SIIs have been identified in the first step. The second step consists of 9 optional indicators: total assets, retail loans, retail deposits, corporate loans, corporate deposits, government bonds, interbank liabilities, interbank assets and covered bonds. These optional indicators characterize a traditional Slovak banking sector better and are suitable for O-SII identification. Both first step and second step have identified the same list of banks as O-SIIs.
4.4 Calibrating the O-SII buffer	Please provide information on the criteria and indicators used to calibrate the level of the O-SII buffer requirement and the mapping to institution-specific buffer requirements. Identified O-SIIs are required to maintain a level of O-SII buffer (see section 6). The O-SII buffers have been calibrated according the score of the identified institutions in the second step. See indicators listed in Section 4.3 In comparison with previous decision the list of O-SIIs identified is the same as the list identified on the basis of data as at end-2024, no change has been made to the list of O-SIIs. O-SII buffer rates have not changed for banks – Slovenská sporiteľňa, a.s., Všeobecná úverová banka, a.s., Tatra banka, a.s., and Prima banka Slovensko, a.s.. with effect from 1 January 2027.

	The total score of Československá obchodná banka, a. s. has increased in 2025. Importantly, its score is expected to substantially increase by the end of 2026, due to already agreed acquisition of 365.bank, a. s.. Hence the level of O-SII buffer rate for Československá obchodná banka, a. s. will increase to 1.25%.
4.5 Effectiveness and proportionality of measure	Please provide a justification for why the O-SII buffer is considered likely to be effective and proportionate to mitigate the risk. As the decision is only to reset the O-SII buffers within the annual review, this point is not relevant.
5. Sufficiency, consistency and non-overlap of the policy response
5.1 Sufficiency of the policy response	For a macroprudential policy to be 'sufficient', the policy responses must be deemed to significantly mitigate, or reduce the build-up of, risks over an appropriate time horizon with a limited unintended impact on the general economy. Note that the ESRB will use the assessment of the macroprudential stance as relevant input in assessing the sufficiency of the macroprudential policy in the Member State. Please provide any additional information that the ESRB should consider in assessing the sufficiency of the policy response. In 2023, NBS adopted a revised methodology which consists of 9 optional indicators. These indicators are used to count a total score, with the weights being distributed proportionally between the segments of banking sector. These indicators sufficiently characterize the picture of risks in the Slovak banking sector.
5.2 Consistency of application of the policy response	For a macroprudential policy to be 'consistent', the policy instruments meet their respective objectives, as outlined in ESRB/2013/1³, and must be implemented in accordance with the common principles set out in the relevant legal texts. Note that the ESRB assessment of consistency will consider whether the same systemic risks are addressed in a similar way across and within the Member States over time. Please provide any additional information that the ESRB should consider in assessing the consistency of the policy response. Our decision on O-SIIs is fully in line with the methodology laid down in the EBA Guidelines. NBS also uses its own methodology, which is based on the EBA methodology while also taking into account certain specific features of the Slovak banking sector.
5.3 Non-overlap of the policy response	For a policy instrument to be 'non-overlapping', it should aim to address a systemic risk that either differs from a risk addressed by other active tools in the same Member State, or be complementary to another tool in that Member State which addresses the same systemic risk. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Are other policy instruments used to address the same systemic risk? - If yes, please explain the need for more than one instrument to address the same systemic risk and how the different instruments interact with each other. As the decision is only to reset the O-SII buffers within the annual review, this point is not relevant.

6. Cross-border and cross-sector impact of the measure
6.1 Assessment of cross-border effects and the likely impact on the Internal Market (Recommendation ESRB/2015/2⁴)	Assessment of the cross-border effects of implementation of the measure. a. Assessment of the spillover channels operating via risk adjustment and regulatory arbitrage. The relevant indicators provided in Chapter 11 of the ESRB Handbook on Operationalising Macroprudential Policy in the Banking Sector⁵ and the Framework to assess cross-border spillover effects of macroprudential policies of the ECB Task Force on cross-border spillover effects of macroprudential measures can be used. b. Assessment of the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o cross-border effects of implementation of the measure in your own jurisdiction (inward spillovers); o cross-border effects on other Member States and on the Single Market of the measure (outward spillovers); o overall impact on the Single Market of implementation of the measure. As the decision is only to reset the O-SII buffers within the annual review, this point is not relevant.
6.2 Assessment of leakages and regulatory arbitrage within the notifying Member State	Referring to your Member State's specific characteristics, what is the scope for "leakages and regulatory arbitrage" in your own jurisdiction (i.e. circumvention of the measure/leakages to other parts of the financial sector)? Is there scope for "leakages and regulatory arbitrage" in other jurisdictions? As the decision is only to reset the O-SII buffers within the annual review, this point is not relevant.
